Frequently Asked Questions	Response
Does the water connection fee also cover the cost of a sewer connection?	No. There is a separate sewer facilities fee that is paid to the Lummi Tribal Sewer District at the time of connection. This connection fee is also currently $2,500 and there is a $100 inspection fee.
What about land use permitting?	In addition to the Water Allocation Transfer Notification, the Water Allocation Transfer Agreement, and the Standard Participation Agreement, you will need to obtain a Lummi Land Use Permit to obtain authorization to install the water line to connect to the District line. If a new house will be constructed, the party will need to apply for a single land use permit for the house construction and the associated waterline and the associated sewer connections.
How do I obtain a copy of the Lummi Land Use Permit Application form?	Please contact the Permit Administrator, Peter Frye, via telephone (360-312-2343) or email (peterf@lummi-nsn.gov) to obtain a copy of a Lummi Land Use Permit Application form.
What fees are required for a Lummi Land Use Permit Application?	There is currently no fee charged for processing a Lummi Land Use Permit Application, but there will be a separate fee charged for a required building inspection if a new house is constructed. The building inspection fee for a manufactured home is currently 0.5% of building value and the fee for a site built home is currently 1% of building value.
